A Great New Studio With Top Notch Gear Los Senderos Opens

Los Senderos Studio is a small, intimate recording studio, nestled on a sweeping hillside with a laid-back atmosphere in the Texas hill country just south of Johnson City on Hwy. 281, just past the 290 cut-off to Austin. It's just a short drive from Austin or San Antonio (about a half hour west of the Y in Oak Hill and about 45 minutes north of Loop 1604). They specialize in new and upcoming artists and bands—those wanting to record their first album or a demo CD—but they also work with established artists wanting a special atmosphere.

The building is 2 story, with a dog-run through the middle. The studio is on the south side of the building, with living quarters upstairs and there is a stage on the north side with plenty of open airy space for crowds to gather and listen. Be looking for some of your favorite artists appearing here for house concerts
